

APPENDIX C

Figure A. Where do clients receive information about financial education activities? (Question 7)

---

0-5%

Case manager/home visitors

Case managers within Home Start, Inc.

Community Services for Families - FRC's Healthy Start

FSS Central and East

Reach out to Families center posts information

Reach out to family center

Resource Centers

Through FRC referral

Through the community resource centers

We refer to 211, CCC, coming housing works

Yes/either at the service centers or at our family asset building office N.C.

EITC component of Family Development Program workshops and case management

Through our family self sufficiency program

From their Case managers and flyers

During case management, inter-agency referral and other agency referral

Case manager

Workshops, seminars

From our Community Development staff and Case Managers budgeting workshops; case management

Housing Department

Through all agency programs and community presentations

Referrals to Lifeline and Faith-Based Community Development Corporation

Flyers from nonprofits who do offer financial literacy

Local Career Centers

Oceanside READS Learning Center

Through work with Case Managers (referral)

here at Life Line we have our own EITC program

VVSD

When they become clients of Crisis House

newsletter, flyers

Career Centers

We work with San Diego Fair Banking Coalition

N/A (2)

---

APPENDIX C

Figure B. What employment support services does your agency offer?

---

Assistance with federal agencies (Worker's comp. etc)
Just printed info is offered
Not applicable
No way to track
Refer out to above services
Referrals for interview clothing
Referrals are to Clients to receive assistance Unsure
mandated career planning workshops
Provide funding to support economic development activities
Referrals to all of the above
Resume development, ESL classes, interview skills
Referrals to the Vista Employment Center and Vista Adult School
Resume preparation, access to computer/phone on-site, interview skills practice

---

Figure C. Other employment support services that should be offered and that are not listed

---

Social skills in terms of obtaining and retaining employment Clothing? Assistance with green cards etc? English language development?
English Classes
I'm wondering how some of these services may be offered through our church
I will discuss with analyst staff ways to track above data for future reference there may be ways that I need to learn about
Interview work clothes
Language development classes for non-heritage English speakers
Not applicable
Prevention and intervention programs for youth, adult education classes, day care preschool service, senior citizens computer classes, adult English learners
Reach to families in 91932
Referral sites or companies for job openings, get them into jobs (help with job searching)
Training for white collar jobs, not just blue collar
Clothing
Employment retention skills, paid youth internships more life skills like punctuality, appearance, dealing with a negative job or credit history
More childcare assistance through subsidized care. This would allow clients to complete job search. More financial assistance for continuing education.
How to keep a job after you get one.
Filling out Job applications and preparing resumes.
Computer courses!

---